

A hand holds a large, yellow, dried leaf with a hole cut out, through which a person's eye is visible. The leaf has a prominent central vein and several smaller veins branching out. There are some dark, irregular spots on the leaf's surface. The background is dark and out of focus.

A still life photograph set within an open, dark brown leather suitcase. The interior of the suitcase is lined with a fabric featuring a purple and gold floral pattern. A pair of matching patterned shorts is folded and placed in the upper right. In the center, a coupe glass filled with an amber-colored drink and a thick white foam head sits on a light-colored wooden board. The board has the words "The Liqueur Room" printed on it. Several sprigs of bright red berries are scattered around the glass and the wooden board. A small, dark, textured garnish is perched on the rim of the glass. The lighting is warm and directional, creating soft shadows and highlighting the textures of the fabric, glass, and wood.
